The Founding Values Initiative

For Immediate Release

Grand Rapids, MI: We are pleased to announce the award winners for the Monday, April 23rd Second Annual Founding Values Initiative Luncheon celebrating the era of Gerald R. Ford at the Peninsular Club in Grand Rapids from 12:00 P.M. – 1:30 P.M.

The scholarship to Calvin College will be presented to Nathaniel Knapper. The Aquinas College scholarship will go to Marcie Graham. The Cornerstone University scholarship will be presented to Mallery Thurlow. The Grand Rapids Community College scholarship will go to Dustin Cook. The Grand Valley State University scholarship will be presented to Victoria Andrews. The scholarships will be presented in conjunction with the following awards and a gift to Millennium Park for Secchia Grove will be presented at the luncheon.

The awards will be presented to honor both the recipients and the individual public servants the awards are named in honor of. The Congressman Paul Henry award for continued commitment to principles of integrity through transparency in public service will go to Congressman Vern Ehlers. Congressman Ehlers has served West Michigan in congress for 14 years. He has built a reputation for honesty and hard work.

The Ambassador Peter Secchia award for community activism through commitment, enthusiasm and encouragement of others will go to Mary Ann Keeler. Mary Ann Keeler has served and continues to serve on many community organizations. Her dedication has made West Michigan a better place.

The Congressman Hal Sawyer award for acting within the judicial system to promote respect for a government of laws will go to Rep. Bill Van Regenmorter. Bill Van Regenmorter served as the Chair of the Judiciary committee in the Michigan Senate for twelve years. He became known as a tireless worker on behalf of the victims of crime.

The special Gerald R. Ford Appreciation Award will be presented to Marty Allen this year. Marty Allen has publicly shown true love and appreciation of President Gerald R. Ford and has demonstrated his values of integrity, commitment and justice.

Seating for the event is limited to 150 people. Individual tickets are available at $125 each. Amounts raised through ticket sales will fund the five scholarships, as well as the gift to Millennium Park. Donations are also being accepted from those unable to attend. Major sponsors who contribute $1,000 or more will be noted during the awards ceremony.
